Agape Request Letter

_____, 20__

Dear _____

_____ is going to attend a Christian weekend event called Chrysalis. In addition to studying and worshipping together, the participants will receive several gifts and surprises. One of these surprises will be personal letters or notes received from loved ones.

I apologize for this impersonal form, but as sponsor, I am responsible for contacting as many family and close friends as possible and asking them to send a letter or note. _____ will receive these letters and notes during their Chrysalis weekend. The letters and notes will be a total surprise!

This letter or note is an opportunity for you to express your appreciation for him/her and what your relationship with them has meant and continues to mean. You might desire to recall a humorous or other special event the two of you shared. This is a letter of love! It will be read ONLY by the person to whom you write.

Please help me make _____ Chrysalis experience special by doing the following:

- Write a letter or note to him/her and sign it
- Place it in an envelope and seal it
- Write _____'s name on the envelope, but not yours
- Put the envelope in a larger envelope and mail it to me at the following address so that I receive it prior to _____. I will need time to deliver the letter or note to the proper place.

Mail to: _____

Sometimes detective work is needed to obtain names and addresses from whom I need help. Perhaps you would be willing to pass this form on to someone else who might want to write also.

Please remember, this will be a complete surprise! So please help make it special by keeping "mum" until it's all over. Thanks for your assistance! If you have any questions, my home telephone number is _____.

Sincerely,
