A letter from the Lay Director Chrysalis Community

Blessing to the Chrysalis/Emmaus Community:

Can you believe it? Chrysalis flight #30 is THIS WEEKEND!!! Chad Hicks and Emily McCollum are busy with last minute preparations. But remember, we need EVERYONE to kick in to make this weekend a success. Nannette Durham, our Chrysalis board kitchen coordinator, is asking that the community supply brownies and cupcakes for the flight. (I know many of you won't finish reading my article because you've rushed to the kitchen to get started on baking, right? ha!) But seriously, this community is the absolute BEST about giving of their time, energy, and cooking skills. I know this weekend won't be any different!

How else can you help besides cooking? Please come serve meals. It's sometimes hard to get servers. Please try to come out and spend some time with the caterpillars. It is such a blessing!!! Don't forget Send Off, Candlelight, and Closing. These three services are such a blessing also. And we REALLY need people to come in around 1 p.m. on Monday to help us break down, move furniture back to where it belongs, vacuum, etc. It's not a glamorous job, but it's very necessary. But most of all, PRAY! As we know, that's what makes the weekend a success.

I can't wait to see all of you this weekend.

Fly With Christ,

Debbie

Letter from the Lay Director Emmaus

Servants,

As we start a new year I pray that we all start it with a Christian plan. I pray that we all have put Christ in our plans. I would ask you to please pause for a period of time and pray for Christ's guidance in your lives. Christ has the answers if and when we listen more than talk, the ol two ears and one mouth theory.

I would like to ask everybody to try VERY HARD to get into a reunion group this year. We get all excited and get people to the hill and then we DROP the ball. We all need the accountable of a reunion group. Please try to get a group going and if you need help PLEASE let me know and we have people to help you.

Due to illness we had to cancel our first board meeting of the year so there will be more info coming soon.

Please be in prayer for the Chrysalis flight this weekend, Hope to see all of you at Broadway UMC for candlelight Sunday night at 8:30.

In Christ Service

Just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.

Romans 12

Spotlight On: Reunion Groups

Reunion groups serve as a covenant partnership between people who have experienced an Emmaus weekend and wish to continue to celebrate their 4th days with others who are also making the same journey. They are confidential and Christ centered and they keep fellow believers in connection with one another as they work out living by the grace of God.

A reunion group can be held anywhere people can speak securely about how they are being transformed by their daily walk with Christ. Each member shares with the group and the group agrees to lift one another in prayer, to hold one another accountable in love and to remind one another that God's grace is sufficient when we fall short of the mark.

If you are interested in deepening your faith and in a group of brothers and sisters in Christ who will love you unconditionally and support you through those moments when our faith is tested by failure, you need to join a reunion group today.

How do you join a group? It's easy!

Simply begin asking other people in your church, work place or home town who have had an Emmaus or Chrysalis experience, if they are interested in a reunion group. God will lay on their hearts the need too, and before you know it, a new reunion group has formed.

This is not simply a fun thing to do, though it is that too. It's a way of continuing the good work begun on our Emmaus weekend. This is too good an opportunity to lose. Say yes to a reunion group!

Chrysalis Schedule

Be devoted to one another in brotherly love. Honor one another above yourselves. Romans 12

Brother Steve Webb

A word of encouragement and it is worth what your paid for it.

Scripture: 50 He ignored them and said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

Luke 7:50 (MSG)

Observation: I observe today that when things are really going my way and my flower garden is full of blooms it is easy for me to look up and give God the praise and it is even easier to put my full faith in God. It's those days that are gloomy and I am not making any progress that keep me from giving God the praise and putting my faith in even what he is doing that day.

Application: Here is a woman who recognized her place in the world and the blessing that could come from a close relationship with Jesus. She brought her whole self, just as she was, to Jesus and did everything she could to bless his presence and make his stay a wonderful experience.

I am looking out my window today as I spent time in God's Word and write down my thoughts--it is cold outside and a little unpleasant, but it is a beautiful view of God's creation. I am in a warm spot with many blessing around me and God has rained down many blessing on me. I believe it is because somehow through my relationship with Jesus I am able to set back even on the bad days and see the good that God brings to me. So, I find a way to give thanks to God even on the cold days.

Prayer: Lord thank you for this wonderful day and this wonderful opportunity to come to you just as I am. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to bless you as you have blessed me. Help me smile when I feel like crying and help me see a blessing when it a gloomy day. Thank you for loving me--Stephen Yieldedness: I yield my heart and my life to God's will for me.
